My Once Upon a Time

Amber Garsia

There's something bout the way you let me down
Feels like you always catch me slippin off something
But I can't sleep I can't breath without
You know you got me thinking this was all for nothing

Boy I'm sick and tired of dreaming stop playing and give me something to keep believing in because I'm losing my mind does this story ever end with me back in your head or do I watch you walk away with my once upon time
My once upon time

Yeah I know it hurts to break to fake to take it right back
Why we even bothering trying to take things slow
But I know I know I know baby I am helpless to this love and now it shows

Boy I'm sick and tired of dreaming stop playing and give me something to keep believing in because I'm losing my mind does this story ever end with me back in your head or do I watch you walk away with my once upon time
My once upon time

Suddenly I know
I realize I gotta let you go
This isn't a fairy tale
No happy endings here
I am ready to take control

Boy I'm sick and tired of dreaming stop playing and give me something to keep believing in because I'm losing my mind does this story ever end with me back in your head or do I watch you walk away with my once upon time

Boy I'm sick and tired of dreaming stop playing and give me something to keep believing in because I'm losing my mind does this story ever end with me back in your head or do I watch you walk away with my once upon time
My once upon time
My once upon time
