

Safe Place

Jimmy Bondoc

Another day inside my world
I'm married to you and this road
The road that never lets me sleep

There's no way to escape these demons I am forced to keep
And then I find you here
Through your eyes every thing's clear

And I'm home inside your arms
But I'm alone for now
I mean the best with what I say
It doesn't always sound that way
I never learned to work things out

'Cuz in my family all we ever seemed to do is shout
And then I find you here
Through your eyes every thing's clear

And I'm home inside your arms
But I'm alone for now, alone for now
And I try to sleep

The drugs I take are killing me
I think of you to ease my pain, but you're so far
And now its time to say goodbye

I love you baby, please don't cry
And then I find you here
Through your eyes every thing's clear
And I'm home inside your arms
But I'm alone for now, alone for now
