HANA

[Verse 1]

You will never see things how they truly are
You're stuck in your own world and of course, you're the star
How could you ever lose when you're playing me
I guess everything's easy when you're that crazy[Pre-Chorus]

Its 4 in the morning
I'm finding my own
You know you never said sorry
For all that you stole[Chorus]
Now I'm going away
And you'll never find me
5 years older today
Molding clay
Found you never knew me
Now i can find happy

Nothing to show but my name[Verse 2]

If i could i would erase it all
You sat on your high horse and watched me fall
You got so many stories that you hide
Everything's so easy when it's all a lie[Pre-Chorus]

Its 4 in the morning
I'm finding my own
You know you never said sorry
For all that you stole[Chorus]
Now I'm going away
And you'll never find me
5 years older today
Molding clay
Found you never knew me
Now i can find happy

Nothing to show but my name[Verse 3]

And when I'm lonely and tired
I'm holding on
Cuz now i'm out of your fire[Chorus x2]
Now I'm going away
And you'll never find me
5 years older today
Molding clay
Found you never knew me

Now i can find happy
Nothing to show but my name
