Sandpit

Curve

Are we savages
Born without hope
(Lost)
On these highways
Existing to goSwallowed my pride
Gutted me from the inside
Left me in this pool of doubt
Now I don't think I can get outYou can laugh
'Cause you think that you're better than meIf we are the instigators
Of our times
Why do we harmonize
Then revolutionize our crimesDown in this sandpit
Of misbegotten
(Youth)
We can sow and disown
the one truthI'm just trying to do the right thing (Escape)
To my eyes
