The Low Hum

Moby

Here I am alone this empty room
No sunny in here
Hear the conversation, of the neighbor, through the wall
A strangle light fades out the window
I can't help myself, I'm in love with this constellation
The city shimmers, our life alone heart
And all the glitters may be gone
And the sun walks in the sky light,
When it's precious, when it starts

Raining in and slowly follow heart
Follow heart
Like a tourist in some strange hotel,
No time for worrying, my little safety, so I will live.
Here I am alone in this empty room
No sign of living here
I?ll be making conversation, in the spaces tonight
A strangled light hangs on the window
But I can?t help myself, I?m in love with this isolation.
