

What If I Say Please

Late Night Alumni

What a sensational display,
So sentimentally arrayed.
Such a theatrical gesture.
These specialized effects, they fester. So don't appeal to me, parading like a pantomime, I mean.
It's unfeeling and I'm unwilling; let me be. What if I say please?
What if I say please?
(What if I say...what if I say...what if I say...) Cry your premeditated tears.
So tenderly, so insincere.
Such feigned, calculated reasons.
These warm smiles, they're freezing. So don't appeal to me, parading like a pantomime, I mean.
It's unfeeling and I'm unwilling; let me be.
So don't appeal to me, parading like a pantomime, I mean.
It's unfeeling and I'm unwilling; let me be. What if I say please?
What if I say please?

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>