Locking Doors

Sean Watkins

I wish that I didn't need to say that I didn't bleedOpen eyes, see my sores, steady mind, I'm not too sure
It's easier just locking doorsA toy doll, not much to say, or so you thought anywayOpen eyes, see my sores, steady mind, I'm not too sure
It's easier just locking doorsNot quite, but just what I see, poor sight, but I still believeOpen eyes, see my sores, steady mind, I'm not too sure
It's easier just locking doors
