Set Me on Fire

Flyleaf

Oh, what a cold, dark world it is to walk through
Alone with a fear-filled head
Thinking of losing you is a haunted song
And a dread much worse than the fear of deathNow I feel the fear rising up
Climbing up, taking over my body
And I feel my pulse starting up
Waking me againOpen my eyes, I'm reaching for you
Set me on fire, set me on fire
I'm burning inside, I'm waiting for you
Set me on fire, set me on fireYour hand in mine, oh, I feel the fire
Two hearts that beat, oh, to feed the fireYou are a spark that shines a light
Where we could belong together, factionless
Let's keep it burning bright 'til we're floating away,
'Til we're ashes dancing inside the flamesNow I feel the fear rising up
Climbing up, taking over my body
And I feel my pulse starting up
Waking me againOpen my eyes, I'm reaching for you
Set me on fire, set me on fire
I'm burning inside, I'm waiting for you
Set me on fire, set me on fireOh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, ohYour hand in mine, oh, I feel the fire
Two hearts that beat, oh, to feed the fireOpen my eyes, I'm reaching for you
Set me on fire, set me on fire
I'm burning inside, I'm waiting for you
Set me on fire, set me on fireOh, oh, oh
Set me on fire, set me on fire
Oh, oh, oh
Set me on fire, set me on fireOh, oh, oh
