

The Water

Dear Genre

Telegraph cables hum
And few can decipher who the message is from
    And deliver it quietly
'Cause some don't get much company
    The harbor becomes the sea
And lighting the house keeps it collision free
    Understand the lay of the land
And don't let it hurt you or it will be the first to
    The water, the water
        Didn't realize
        It's dangerous size
    The mountain, the mountain
        Came to recognize
        It's steep and rocky sides
        More than realized
        Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
        Pale as a pile of bones
        You hope for your babies
        And this is how they grow
    Wind-battered, knocked over
        The teeth by the shoulder
        Watching the gray sky
    That's acting like a good guy
        The water, the water
            Came to realize
            It's a dangerous size
    The mountain, the mountain
        Came to recognize
        It's steep and rocky sides
        Came to recognize
        It's steep and rocky sides
        More than realized
