

Sometimes You Just Can't Win

George Jones

Just when the sunshines the brightest
And the world looks alright, again
Then the clouds fill the sky's
You can't believe your eyes
Sometimes you just cant winMy love never meant much to you dear
Or yo you I was always a friend
Oh, why did I call,
You have no heart at all
Sometimes you just cant winI can't live like this any longer
Not knowing just where I stand
I know I should't care
But sweetheart it don't seem fair
Sometimes you just cant winAnd then when the sunshines the brightest
And the world looks alright, again
The clouds fill the sky's
You can't believe your eyes
Sometimes you just can't win

Songwriters
SMOKEY STOVERPublished by Lyrics Â© GLAD MUSIC CO.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>