

The Grief Prophecy / Shadows Over A Lost Kingdom

Dissection

I have traveled through eternity
I will reign once again, you will never rule againHunger, a thirst for your pain
I will see your kingdom burnt by sinsJoin my crusade of a time left to come
To spill the blood, you're the ones who never saw the sunNow I hear it, the calling, I hear the calling of the mist
The ancients and their slumber, and I will rise again from the sea
Prophecy from the sea
