Who I Am In You

Addison Road

Secrets they were killing me
Pulled me under in too deep
All those shadows they don't let go
EasilyBut everything I covered up
Is opening inside Your love
Let Your grace illuminate
The heart in meOh, You're bringing me to life
And I'm finding who I am in You
Who I am in You
Oh, You're changing me inside
And I'm finding who I am in You
Who I am in YouBreath Your breath into my soul
Let my heart beat with Your own
I need Your mercy
Even when it hurts
Please shine on me
Shine on meOh, You're bringing me to life
And I'm finding who I am in You
Who I am in You
Oh, You're changing me inside
And I'm finding who I am in You
Who I amIf there's anything I try to hide
I pray that You will bring it to the light
Strip away the lies that I pretend
Teach me how to be a child againResting in Your arms
Resting in Your arms
And I could feel Your love changing meOh, You're bringing me to life
And I'm finding who I am in You
Who I am in You
Oh, I've finally realized
That I'm finding who I am in You
Who I am
In You
Who I am in You
Who I am in You
