

Juicy

Rafter

Peaceful feelings from beyond the grave curtains drawn to avoid the shade oh we've heard - good - things from the lovers.

Everyones got to go to sleep, everyone some day will die, but the lovers have told us that they're livin' forever. Ahhh

But don't you count all your blessings be-fore they happen or, they won't happen at all.

You've gotta live for your blessings or, they wont
happen no, they won't happen at all.

Peaceful feelings from the beyond the grave.
My faith is swimmin' but I have not changed it just wilted and fell off the moment that I...died~

Peaceful feelings from the beyond the grave; Well the lovers are lucky that they've got it made oh but our lives will be cut short... by accident

woah

Don't you count all your blessings be-fore they
happen or, they won't happen at all.

You've gotta live for your blessings to, make them
happen or, they won't happen at all.

Oh don't you count all your blessings before they
happen or, they wont happen at all.

You've gotta live for your blessings or, they won't
happen, no, they won't happen at all.

Talk to her, Talk to her; you little lovers
