

Ghost Walking

Lamb Of God

Do you remember, when work was bond? A fleeting promise in the light of the dawn.
Barren December, under a falling sky. The end of days and a reason to die!
Obliteration never looked so divine. Holding your breath for the moment in time.
You lived through hell!! Now you're trying to die. The skin is healed but your bleeding inside.
Shots fired, just to numb the pain. Theres no one left to save.
Night blind on the starting path. Ghost walking in the aftermath.
Hypnotized 60 cycle hum. The broken cadence of a distant drum!!!
21 to 1 im liking the odds, a blood junkie with a lightning rod. A dirty rig and a heavenly nod.
And still you wind up nowhere!!!
Obliteration never looked so divine. Holding your breath for the moment in time.
You lived through hell!!! Now your trying to die. The skin is healed but your bleeding inside.
Shots fired, just to numb the pain. Theres no one left to save.
You!! You chased the dragon but it followed you home.
You!! You're lost in fever dreams and broken homes.
Decimation never looked so divine. Promise yourself for the very last time.
You lived through hell!!! Now your trying to die. The skin is healed but your bleeding inside.
Shots fired, just to numb the pain. Theres no one left to save.
A fever trip!!!
Shots forever end the pain!!
