

Waiting on the Stars (feat. Carly Smithson)

Brooke White

"Waiting on the Stars"

Brooke White featuring Carly Smithson

Never felt a love so strong
Feeling life has just begun
I see the world now through your eyes
So innocent and pure inside
I'll hold you in my arms tonight

Waiting for the stars to come
feel the sky
watch them shine like diamonds
Hung above the world so high
For you and I
Dream sweet child till tomorrow

Mama keep you safe and warm
Never will you feel alone tucked up in your cozy bed
There's magic in your dreams ahead
So close your eyes my tiny friend

Waiting for the stars to come
Feel the sky
Watch them shine like diamonds
Hung above the world so high
for you and I dream sweet child til tomorrow

Close your eyes
Close your eyes
Close your eyes
Lost inside a lullaby

Waiting on the stars to come
Waiting on the stars to come

Waiting for the stars to come
Feel the sky
Watch them shine like diamonds

Hung above the world so high
For you and I
Dream sweet child till tomorrow

Waiting for the stars to come
Feel the sky
Watch them shine like diamonds
Hung above the world so high
For you and I
Dream sweet child till tomorrow
