True Widow

Severed head syndrome.
Watching the seer come on.
Ready to be like a shattered bone.
Once in the nape it can't be undone.

Cover with leaves where you've gone.
Watching the lace scar and the color come.
Reaching the ridge with a thumb.
Why won't you make it ever so?

I've been waiting for you everyday.
Just inside there you can stay.
When you see me please don't look away.
Once you're bound you're never leaving.
