

I Am What I Am

Doro Pesch

Some choose to remember
Some choose to forget
Some fall to pieces
When they lose their heads
I choose to get lucky
Don't choose to regret
I'll take my chances
Only I know best
When it all gets down to me
When it all gets down to me
(Cause) I Am, What I Am
And no one's gonna tell me where or when
'Cause I Am What I Am
And no one's gonna break me down again
I hate to be lonely
I can't pretend
Don't need no phonies
Tryin' to be my friends
Don't care 'bout danger
I can take the fall
Ev'ryone's a stranger

Till just one stands tall
And it all comes down to me
When it all comes down to me
(Cause) I Am, What I Am
And nobody's gonna tell me where or when
'Cause I Am, What I Am
Nothin's gonna break me down again
I can hear the devil callin', callin'
I can hear him callin' me
But I don't do nothin'
I don't believe
When it all comes down to me
When it all gets down to me
(Cause) I Am, What I Am
And no one's gonna tell me where or when
'Cause I Am, What I Am
And nothin's gonna break me down again

No, nothin's gonna break me down - again
