Joke or a Lie

Sharon Van Etten

what should i do
i am lost
tell me to leave the next time i'm in front of you i can't relatechip on your shoulder, how do you deal with that weight my hands are getting tiredcall it a joke or a lie call it a joke or a lie put your coat on
then believe me
i trylet us escape
for a night
breathe the silence
i am alone
but i am alone in this room with you
