

Joke or a Lie

Sharon Van Etten

what should i do
i am lost
tell me to leave
the next time i'm in front of you i can't relate
chip on your shoulder, how do you deal with that weight my hands are getting tired
call it a joke or a lie
put your coat on
then believe me
i try
let us escape
for a night
breathe the silence
i am alone
but i am alone in this room with you
