

Control Me (feat. Stoomie & Chris Taylor)

Jallal

[Stoomie Hook]

You control me, you're taking me down x3You take me down though
I think that I've become blind
She took me down at the perfect time
You used to fight with me all the time yeah
And why you had to do me like that no no
You had a nigga crying on the floor, no joke
Control me like zombies
Break free thats the old me
I know you feel its over, like Wasn't Target where I learned your dance?
Hope Kim goes in rewind
It took me all that time Now
Im done trying well

We'll be alright, HopeSpit it too fast, so I get it right back, and I follow the light, cause the night so black
Save me from Hell you know the Lord got my back like all the time, you know
Tryna make it work but the love don't shine
How it gonna work if we both don't try
Man she left me in my tears
And I got to come back with symp tracks
No no fearNo no cheers with no no fans and no no plans and I had no chance and ill always love her till the day i die lordWhy you control me like that My girl hit me right back and
And I still don't need that like OohWe could go back in time
Oh yeah yeah yeahWhy you leaving, every evening,
Get the feeling your faith is weakened
Nigga know ya moms the reason
I be on that finally leaving
You fake now, I believed it you break down,
Fuck you and your fake mouth
Bless you and your whine time
Well I really wanna curse sometimes
But I, I really gotta tell you my mind and I,

Well I gotta do me sometimes
And i know you wanna take some time
You control me
You control me
I chill with my homies
Them girls I be ignoring
And I still be flowing
And I still be flowing
And I still be flowing[Chris Taylor Outro]
You know you control me
You know you got that control
You know you got me low
Got me feeling low
Take me down, take me down
Why do you control me
