

Longest Time

Andy Kim

In the night there's a full wind crossing
On my time, on my fire
And I was awake to see
Every day I can see where the hurt lies
Getting harder, getting longer
For you to rescue me they will wait for the longest time
It's all decided
They will wait for the longest time
It's all decided in the war of the world we find
I'm on inside out, upside down, oh
Without the right to live
In the see of my worn out knees
I steal the power, feel the tower
Smile from destiny they don't wait for the longest time
It's all decided
They don't wait for the longest time
It's all decided well I got too much
I got too much!
Well I know they will say
It's mine
Well I know they will say
Time they don't wait for the longest time
It's all decided
They don't wait for the longest time
It's all decided when the love it's afraid
And the world wants to have
When the love it's afraid
And the world wants to have
When the love it's afraid
And the world wants to have
Oh, my love, my time, my girl
I'm frating with it all they don't wait for the longest time
They don't wait for the longest time
It's all decided
They don't wait for the longest time
It's all decided
