

Air-hostess Song

Gomez

She had perfect eyes
That's all she had
And in the these perfect skies
Makes you gladShe has alibis
And they're not bad
And in these perfect skies
Makes you sadMakes you sad
Makes you sad
Makes you sad
Makes you sadShe had perfect eyes
That's all she had
And in the these perfect skies
Makes you gladWe're all here on faith
The air tastes bad
Far from perfect skies
Is all you hadIs all you had
Makes you sad
Makes you sad
Makes you sadI don't want no grace
Put me in my place
With a smile, just a smileI don't want no grace
I don't want no grace
Just a smileMake you glad
Make you glad
Make you glad
