The Ghost Of You

The Tears

I threw out the photographs
Like yesterdays flowers
I tried to erase the past
But it won't go awayAnd those where the curtains
That you had made
One thing's for certain
The ghost of you staysI painted the second room
And cleared out the basement
And smelled some of your perfume
On the scarf that you madeThe Salvation Army collected your things
I gave them the jewelery, all the bracelets and rings
Your clothes in black bin bags I gave them away
I tried to move on but the ghost of you stays
The ghost of you stays
The ghost of you staysI threw out the photographs
Like yesterdays flowers
I tried to erase the past
But it won't go awayI wake in the morning
And try to be brave
But it's hard to move on
When the ghost of you staysIt's hard to move on
When the ghost of you stays
The ghost of you stays
The ghost of you stays
