Honeyrider

The Superjesus

if i drove all night on a rollercoaster ride to the sun would you pay me no mind would you slide and fall behind everyone if this carousel with its painted silver shell shines on you would you circle high above all the dreams you stand to love with all you knew echoing for miles tonight
'cause tomorrows right by my side empty and dry
so long i say
i'm wrapped in the seasons of my yesterday dawn may be the last thing you'll ever see always rising to me
'cause nothing else can ever set me free CHORUS
i'll wake in the sun...
