

Strut

Danko Jones

Baby Baby's looking better than fine
She's got a brand new dress and she's ready to shine got her heart broke bad by some silly guy
Didn't know who the hell he had but she found out just in time
So tonight don't look for Mr. Right
You strap those tight pants on and walk in a straight line
Got the home field advantage cause you're one of a kind,
Pick yourself up leave your self doubt home and just...Strut Strut...Turn the streets into your catwalk (X 2)
So Baby who cares if you got your heart stuck
Stuck on a boy who only brought you bad luck
There's no reason for you to feel all bad
If the boy don't want to keep you just make him wish he had because...It's Friday night and you ain't quite right
You got your back against the wall
But your head ain't on too tight
When you break your heart bad there's someting you outta know honey
One monkey don't stop no show so...Strut Strut.. Turn the streets into your catwalk (x4)
Get out and get ready
To tell the world that you've arrived
Before you take it outside Honey
Remember to do it in style
Noody cares about second best
Noone will know if you're too shy
Nothing gets done sitting on the fence
The hottest thing you got is confidence
Strut Strut
