

Daunting Friend.

Lost in the Trees

You're such a daunting friend
You sing to me under your bed
 A melody's rotten
 All your spiraling hair
I will meet you on the stairs
 The angels are speaking
 So I will lie
 In your shadow
Out where the oceans are dark
 We'll never hunt alone
 So long
Out where our eyes are all older
 Our memories have grown
 We'll float around the town
Chasing all that beauty we're after
 A mirror repeating
 Saying you're alright
Sing with all the color of night
 Our love's always changing
 Like angels speaking
 So I will lie
 In your shadow
Out where the oceans are dark
 We'll never hunt alone
 And rise up
 Arise
 Light of our own
Our armored moon will burn bright
 And fold us in her arms
 I let you slip away
 You let me slip away
 Forever
When our eyes are all older
 Our memories stay
