

Good Love

Goapele

I know sometimes I push you
Say all that I do
See if you'll still stay
I like to have my way If I took you for granted
Just know, I never meant it
I'll try to be thoughtful
And make sure my heart's pure Good love's hard to hold
That's why I'm squeezing tight Sometimes I don't feel you, you don't feel me
We're distant, we need space
But I'm coming back for you
'Cause you're my true blue You're a Capricorn, I'm Cancer
And sometimes we can't relate
But we meet at the center
That's where love is tender You're my first phone call, my best friend
You could never be replaced
If I'm not there beside you
I'm just a hop, skip, a jump away I question everything
It's 10 years and I still can't get it straight
Just know that I love you
Always thinking of you Good love's hard to hold
That's why I'm squeezing tight
Good love's hard to hold
That's why I'm squeezing tight I love that you're so truthful
So willing to work it through, you love so brave
My passion is your flame
I don't want you to change You kiss me softly under covers
And you never make me beg
You even say thank you
And sorry when you're rude I love you today in the purest way, in the purest way
I love you today in the purest way, in the purest way Never, never, never, never Never, never, never, never
Never been so sure before, no
Never, never, never, never
Never, never, never, never
Never been so pure I love you today in the purest way, in the purest way
I love you today in the purest way, in the purest way
I love you today in the purest way
