

When You're Holding Me

PawnShop kings

all this work and i'm not sleepin' i've got no place to lay my head too many days since i saw your face and i'd give anything to be back home again will you hold me when i'm broken will you hold me when i'm lost you don't have to tell me anything at all it's enough when you're holding me leave a light on for me when i'm gone i am longing for you while i'm away i am climbing one last mountain to be home with you before you wake will you hold me when i'm broken
it's enough when you're holding me
