Who Do You Love

No Mercy

I'm walking down the street
Thinking about use to blame
'Cause the poison rain is falling
From the stars some must playing gamesWe're reaching out so far away
It's time that we come back
There's so much I have to say
Communication's what we lackWho do you love
Who, who, who do you love
Tell me I would like to know
Who do you loveWho, who, who do you love
Tell me I would like to know
Who do you love
There were times I felt warm insideWhen the feeling was deep in my heart
A feeling that brings us together
And I thought we'd never grow apart
We're reaching out so far awayIt's time that we come back
There's so much I have to say
Communication's what we lack
Who do you loveWho, who, who do you love
Tell me I would like to know
Who do you love
Who, who, who do you loveTell me, tell me I want to know
Who do you love
Who, who, who do you love
Tell me who do you loveWho do you love
Who do you love
Who do you love
We're reaching out so far awayIt's time that we come back
There's so much I have to say
Communication's what we lack
Who do you loveWho, who, who do you love
Tell me I would like to know
Who do you love
Who, who, who do you loveTell me, tell me I want to know
Who do you love
Who, who, who do you love
Oh I want to knowWho do you love
Who, who, who do you love
Tell me who do you love

Who do you love
