Stormy

Classics IV

You were the sunshine, baby, whenever you smiled
But I call you Stormy today
All of a sudden that ole rain's fallin' down
And my world is cloudy and gray, you've gone awayOh Stormy, oh Stormy
Bring back that sunny dayYesterday's love was like a warm summer breeze
But, like the weather you changed
Now things are dreary, baby, and it's windy and cold
And I stand alone in the rain, callin' your nameOh Stormy, oh Stormy
Bring back that sunny dayOh Stormy, oh Stormy
Bring back that sunny day
Bring back that sunny dayOh Stormy, oh Stormy
