

Whatever Suits You (Hawk Remix)

Cover Drive

The nerve, they be talkin'
Talkin out their mind
You said talk and we'll listen
How else you gon survive?
You're in the shadows, of plenty egos
And no stiletto's gonna get you on that pedestalBut what do you want? Another photo please
Just wiggle your head, oh girl you puzzle
That's just too crazy, Miss Little Lady
You'd better stop
You're too caught upChoose from the two, they're black and white
They ain't about your story but just want your life
Baby choose from the two, they're black and white
It's your life, your life, it's your life(adsbygoogle = window.adsbygoogle || []).push({});
Whatever suits you, just a love compromise
Don't apologize, do whatever you like
Whatever suits you, who cares what they say?
They're gon talk anyway but so what? So what?Feels like you wanna run away
Gonna lose yo mind and go crazy
This oriented successfully
But if you wanna quit and just be lazy
You'll rock it then, try to compromise
Reverse effect, you fossilized
And change yourself before your eyes
Situation game, you don't traumatize
And you know it ain't easy when you're tryna be a breezy
And you try to be like (oh yea she's my main)
When all you really feel is hate
She hang up, those less arrive
Other with the flow and you change the type
Them hollow words, they ain't matchin mine
Forget the egos and kick and slideChoose from the two, they're black and white
They ain't about your story but just want your life
Baby choose from the two, they're black and white
It's your life, your life, it's your lifeWhatever suits you, just a love compromise
Don't apologize, do whatever you like
Whatever suits you, who cares what they say?
They're gon talk anyway but so what? So what?Whatever suits you, just a love compromise
Don't apologize, do whatever you like
Whatever suits you, who cares what they say?

They're gon talk anyway but so what? So what?If you stay, they control
Every dream you'll never know
Get away now, don't lose your soul
Get away now, that you've been toldIf you stay, they control
Every dream you'll never know
Get away now, don't lose your soul
Get away now, that you've been toldWhatever suits you, just a love compromise
Don't apologize, do whatever you like
Whatever suits you, who cares what they say?
They're gon talk anyway but so what? So what?Whatever suits you, just a love compromise
Don't apologize, do whatever you like
Whatever suits you, who cares what they say?
They're gon talk anyway but so what? So what?
