Drowning

Sunset Black

Tell me what's your destination
Do you speak the truth like me
Tell me what's your destination
Do you want to live for freeI'm drowning in circles I
Feel everything
I'm drowning in circles I
AloneAnd you speak answers that I can't hear
And you talk in voices you speak so clear
And you say you're sorry time again in hereI'm drowning in circles I
Feel everything
I'm drowning in circles I
AloneI'm drowning in circles I
Feel everything
I'm drowning in circles
AloneIf something falls beneath this
If something comes about
If time keeps on wasting away with doubt
In this I speak my sorrows
In this I call my own
I'm going away from nothing
I'm finding my way back where I used to be
When all was safe and all was free
And now you're gone so I waste away
And now I find there's nothing left to say
To youI'm drowning in circles I
I'm drowning in circles I
I'm drowning in circles I
I'm drowning in circles I
I'm drowning in circles I
