

Ancient Man

Burlap to Cashmere

Do you believe in ancient destiny?
This food you've been giving me
Is making me blind, you see
My soul needs to be
My soul needs to be freeSo many times you won
So many souls you burnedAncient man, where are you roaming?
I cannot follow the dream
Ancient man, why are you crying?
I cannot follow the schemesYou came to me with open arms, and stuff
You said you had holy bread
Man, you know that was just wonder bread
Look here, my soul needs to be
My soul needs to be freeSo many times you won
So many souls you burnedAncient man, where are you roaming?
I cannot follow the dream
Ancient man, why are you crying?
I cannot follow the schemesSo many times you won
So many souls you burnedAncient man, where are you roaming?
I cannot follow the dream
Ancient man, why are you crying?
I cannot follow the schemes
