

On a Clear Day

P.M. Dawn

Think I could find a better way, I'll find a sight to see
Find a place that I belong to Wandering aimlessly but I know where I can go
Somewhere across from me, I now realize On a clear day, I can see
If only I could hear you, if only you could hear me
On a clear day, baby, I can see
Everything that's cosmic, but you, baby Oh, maybe I'm just another something new
Maybe on a clear day I'll see you
Maybe I'm just another something new
Maybe on a clear day I'll see you, baby I'll see you baby
I'll see you baby
I'll see you baby
I'll see you baby When you open up your eyes
What's in front of you
Is what's supposed to be there
Oh really? Ask me who I am
Ask me what you are
One nation under God
I'm smiling On a clear day, baby I can see
If only I could find you, if only you could find me
On a clear day, baby
I can see, only God knows where you're going Open up your hearts
Open up your mind
Baby how do you feel?
Are you cold here? Kiss me everyday
And I find another way
Brings me in the sky
I don't know you On a clear day, baby, I can see
If only I could see you, if only you could see me
On a clear day, baby, I can see
Forever behind the horizon line Oh, maybe I'm just another something new
Maybe on a clear day I'll see you
Maybe I'm just another something new
Maybe on a clear day, I'll see you baby I'll see you baby
I'll see you baby
I'll see you baby
I'll see you baby Oh, where was I before?
It doesn't matter now
Maybe it does sometimes

I don't know What do ya think of me?
What do ya think of life?
Hold me in my arms
I love you On a clear day, baby, I can see
Everyone that loves you, everyone that loves me
On a clear day, baby, I can see
Whatever's in front of my eyes Maybe I'm just another something new
Maybe on a clear day, I'll see you
Maybe I'm just another something new
Maybe on a clear day, I'll see you Maybe I'm just another something new
Maybe on a clear day, I'll see you
Maybe I'm just another something new
Maybe on a clear day, I'll see you, baby I'll see you baby
I'll see you baby
I'll see you baby
