

Detonator

Nasum

Mine sweep my soul, ready to blow
Looks like it's time to give in
My fuses blown, beaten and torn
Over the edge, now it begins You were my detonator
Two as one, falling down
Descending into the unknown Shut your eyes, look inside
Shocked, but it's too late to leave
Scream for revenge, foaming with rage
Too late for all apologies You were my detonator
Two as one, falling down
Descending into the unknown Broken hope, in succession of Broken words, I had put my faith in you
Stolen truth, so shocked by you
Stolen truth, deception in the extreme You were my detonator
Two as one, falling down
Descending into the unknown
