

My Next Breath (Acoustic)

Hawk Nelson

Just when I thought I was gone
Too far, too far gone
And no one cared
Just when I thought I was lost
So lost, I'd never be found
I turn around and You're right there
You're right there You open up Your arms
And give me a new start
I need You
I need You more than my next breath
I know that I am loved
'Cause You bought me with Your blood
I need You
I need You more than my next breath
Yeah Ashamed of who I'd become
Afraid that if I looked up
I'd see Your tears
But You have called me by name
And You have loved me the same
I'm forever changed
And You are here, You are here You open up Your arms
And give me a new start
I need You
I need You more than my next breath
I know that I am loved
Because You bought me with Your blood
I need You
I need You more than my next breath
Yeah, yeah I surrender my soul
To Your love, to Your whole
Where You go I will go with You You open up Your arms
And give me a new start
I need You
I need You more than my next breath
I know that I am loved
Because You bought me with Your blood
I need You more than my next breath
Yeah, yeah, oh
