

Good Girl

Paula DeAnda

Somehow I sit here and I think about it
Who needs love for I've been without it
When I met you, I didn't wanna let you in
But you did something to me when you rubbed my hand Told me you would never do me wrong
That what we have together will be so strong
Tell me what is this, I'm falling, keep falling, yeah How could you take my heart and run?
I was so mistreated
I thought that you could be the one
You were all I needed Boy, you had a good girl
I woulda given you the world
Even all the stars above
Woulda given my love, yes, all of my love No matter how hard that I try to fight it
There's no way, boy, can deny it
You coming around and out, spinning inside
And it takes all I got to try to fight it When I remember what you did
For believing in what you said
I put my trust in you, I gave my best to you
But in the end there's no more you How could you take my heart and run?
I was so mistreated
I thought that you could be the one
You were all I needed I'm a good girl
I woulda given you the world
Even all the stars above
Woulda given my love, yes, all of my love You had a good girl but you let her slip away
Why did you, why did you?
Ooh, I was that girl for you that was always by your side
How could you, how could you, how could you? Boy, you had a good girl
I woulda given you the world
Even all the stars above
Woulda given my love, yes, all of my love Boy, you had a good girl
I woulda given you the world
Even all the stars above
Woulda given my love, yes, all of my love Boy, you had a good girl
I woulda given you the world
Even all the stars above
Woulda given my love, yes, all of my love
