Sun Will Rise

GTA

I know the sun will rise
Just like the stars in the skiesHey there busy boy, why are you so blue
Walking around in your Armageddon shoes
You say you got nothing, you got nothing left to lose
Boy, if they were free, you still would not have a clueI know the sun will rise
Just like the stars in the skies
Just like every time you look at me with loving in your eyes
I know the sun will riseTalking to the mystics, you got psychics on the phone
What a silly waste of time
You talk about lonely but you never were alone
Boy, you just got to clear your mindI know the sun will rise
Just like the stars in the skies
Just like every time you look at me with loving in your eyes
I know the sun will riseWhy must it be some big mystery, yeah
Why can't it just be alrightI know the sun will rise
Just like the stars in the skies
Just like every time you look at me with loving in your eyes
I know the sun will riseI know the sun will rise
Just like the stars in the skies
Just like every time you look at me with loving in your eyes
I know the sun will rise
