

Necrophagic Madness

Cut Up

Devouring the living and scavenging the dead
Those stinking carcasses will meltWelcome to the tombs where the rotten cease to beConnoisseur of the undead, birthfather of death
Chewing, gnawing, revel in their flesh
An appetite for guts, wormfilled caskets molding corpses
If it bleeds, it's already goneWelcome to the tombs, where the rotten cease to beFilthy, naked and buried alive
Crawling from the caskets to die
Welcome to the tombs where the rotten cease to be
Welcome to the tombs where the rotten cease to be
