

Fresh Experience

Sammie Okposo

In the quietness and brokenness of my heart, Lord, I pray.

Help me to be before I do.

Lord, give me knowledge before utterance.

Growth before showing forth.

Righteousness before prosperity.

Teach me before I teach. Your ways before your acts.

May my heart long for your word, and may I live by it all day long.

Lord, don't let me, Jesus, ever get used to you.

Keep me forever, broken before you. Interrupt me when my choices affect your will for my life,

Lord, let my daily experience with you be fresh.

May my prayers never become a routine, But a much sought after moment with you.

May all my goals, passions, and pursuits give way to just loving you,

Jesus, my Lord, my King.

To love and to know you is all I desire.

Nothing else matters than your presence, O Jesus. I want you more.

Lord, don't let me, Jesus, ever get used to you. Keep me forever, broken before you. Interrupt me when my choices affect your will for my life,

Lord, let my daily experience with you be fresh.

Lord, let my daily experience with you be fresh,

Lord, let my daily experience with you be fresh,

Be fresh in pursuit of you Jesus, every day.
