Push Me Away

The Last Goodnight

Why cant you begin to understand?
Youre only happy when youre sad and its killing me
We can talk, we can cry, we can tell each other lies
And call this our goodbyeThis is no kind of relationship
Its all stressed, broken, bruised and walking out the door
We can run, we can hide, just look me in the eye
And call this our goodbyeYou push me away for the first time
I can see this will be just another landslide
Push me away for the last time
And Im over it but in the meantime
Push me away for the last timeYour parade of dishonesty
Has shown me sides of you I never knew
And never wanna know
We can run, we can fly, Im just sick of all the lies
This is my goodbyeYou push me away for the first time
I can see this will be just another landslide
Push me away for the last time
And Im over it but in the meantime
Push me away for the last timeThis is my break up to you
Breaking through you
This is me, broke in pieces
Cant you see this?You push me away for the first time
I can see this will be just another landslideYou push me away for the first time
I can see this will be just another landslide
Push me away for the last time
And Im over it but in the meantime
Push me away for the last timeI dont want this to be just another landslide
Push me away for the last time
I dont want this to be just another landslide
Just another landslide
