

On and On

Hit the Lights

I want a big house that sits by the shore
And when I wake up I could watch the tide rise
All of my friends, they would live next door
And every night we'd build a fire in the backyard We'd listen to all our favorite songs
Watch it burn and we sing along
On and on and on, oh oh
On and on and on Woke up this morning, it was bitter cold
Pieced together where the car was parked
Now I'm running late to work
I took the back roads behind the prison yard This year is slinking by so slow
This town has watched me come and go
On and on and on, oh oh
On and on and on Do you believe that you're in control
Of the things that you say you want?
I'm awake, watching TV shows
And get the feeling that we are the products Of generations I'm searching for gold
Think we're the best just to stay afloat
On and on and on, oh oh
On and on and on, oh oh
On and on and on
The waves crash on and on and on, oh oh
On and on and on When you feel the water pull you down
You're caught up in the gravity
Don't let it take you out to drown
Just hold your head above this Can we go back to the place
Where we were standing at the top?
When we were living everyday
Like it's the last one that we've got Yeah, we'll go back to the days
That went on and on and on
And we'll get back to the place
Where waves crashed on and on and on
And on and on
On and on and on, oh oh
