

Nothing More

Noah Galvin

Dear Jason

I know what you've heard
I know there are rumors
But they're totally false
There's a perfectly simple explanation
And so I am writing this letter cause you must have missed my call

It's not that I'm weird
It's not like I'm different
It's not that at all

It's just you walked me home
I guessed I liked how we could talk and not even notice we had passed my door
Nothing more

You said you liked my shirt
No one ever says they like my shirt
Now when I get teased
It doesn't hurt like before
Nothing more

I'm sure that you agree
It's simply nice to be understood
Nothing unique
In Wanting a friend who can make you feel good

It's just you're on my mind
Like when you're not there you're on my mind
And I think about the ways
I find you both cool and mature

How your smile and your spark
Make the walk home less dark
More secure
Nothing more

I can't just go away
You're why my life's okay
why it was

Isn't it clear
You understand me when no one else does
No one else

It's just that you're my friend
But you're like a different kind of friend
Like a sort of guy that I depend on My cure

Jason, what can I do
'Cause my life was all you
Only you
Nothing more

So write back when you can
It's kinda
Time sensitive
