

Here's to Us

Ellie Goulding

[Verse 1]

You're falling at your feet, giving everything up
There's something in the way, love is never enough
I see your sorry how I'm burning down the gun
With a war in your mind that never wants to be won

I catch you in a light no one else can see
I know you see her, and you'll never see me
She makes you feel the most, keep your souls alive
But what we had, it never really died[Chorus]
And this is what I'll say if I had any words
Wish we hadn't messed up, now your heart is with hers
And I know that your love wasn't here to stay
I gave you all of mine but you gave it away
And now you're the one who hurts

You had to love someone else just to know your worth[Verse 2]

But here's to us, here's to us, here's to us
Yeah, this is just a phase, pretty sure of that
And one day, you and I, we will never look back
You kept me in the flames but the fire was out, the fire was out[Chorus]
And this is what I'll say if I had any words
Wish we hadn't messed up, now your heart is with hers
And I know that your love wasn't here to stay
I gave you all of mine but you gave it away
And now you're the one who hurts

You had to love someone else just to know your worth[Bridge: Harmonization]

Ah, oh, oh, ah, ah, oh

Ah, oh, oh, ah, ah, oh

Ah, oh, oh, ah, ah, oh

Ah, oh, oh, ah, ah, oh[Chorus]

And this is what I'll say if I had any words
Wish we hadn't messed up, now your heart is with hers
And I know that your love wasn't here to stay
I gave you all of mine but you gave it away
And now you're the one who hurts
You had to love someone else just to know your worth[Outro]
But here's to us, here's to us, here's to us
