Hold You

Omd (orchestral Manoeuvres In The Dark)

You're far away tonight

Haven't seen you in a while

It always feel like a climb

On this never ending hillAnd I keep saying, wait just one more day

Days slowly drift away

And I can hold to the memories

But they wont hold me in the same way

As youAnd this distance between us

Has has come and cut us clean as

A sharp blade

And this distance between us

Has made my heart as weak as

Silk that's frayedAnd I just wanna

Hold ya, hold ya, hold ya now

You're the one that

Keeps me, keeps me on the ground

I just wanna

Hold ya, hold ya, hold ya now

Can we turn this knife the blunt way around? I feel empty, my eyes are closed

It's getting dark and I'm alone

And I sleep next to my window

In case you decide to come homeAnd I keep saying, wait just one more day

Days slowly drift away

And memories I have begin to fade

'Cause you're so far awayThis distance between us

Has has come and cut us clean as

A sharp blade

And this distance between us

Has made my heart as weak as

Silk that's frayedAnd I just wanna

Hold ya, hold ya, hold ya now

You're the one that

Keeps me, keeps me on the ground

I just wanna

Hold ya, hold ya, hold ya now

Can we turn this knife the blunt way around? And I can only stay

One more day

It's like waiting on the rain

In a warm summer dayAnd this distance between us

Has has come and cut us clean as
A sharp blade
And this distance between us
Has made my heart as weak as
Silk that's frayedAnd I just wanna
Hold ya, hold ya, hold ya now
You're the one that
Keeps me, keeps me on the ground
I just wanna
Hold ya, hold ya, hold ya now
Can we turn this knife the blunt way around, now.
