

I Get Along Without You Very Well

Frank Sinatra

I get along without you very well, of course, I do
Except when soft rains fall and drip from leaves, then I recall
The thrill of being sheltered in your arms, of course, I do
But I get along without you very well I've forgotten you just like I should, of course, I have Except to hear your name, or someone's laugh that is the same
But I've forgotten you just like I should What a guy, what a fool am I
To think, my breaking heart could kid the moon
What's in store? Should I phone once more?
No, it's best that I stick to my tune I get along without you very well, of course, I do
Except perhaps in spring but I should never think of spring
For that would surely break my heart in two
