Without Eyes Still Seeing

Rocky Votolato

Everyday has a song
Some get sung while others go unheard
Take a good look around
It'll never be this way againSo try to remember Dylan, Drake, even Schwarzenbach
How you became heroes I'll never forget
It's not easy to look at your heart
Not many men know how and even fewer speak outSo if you know exactly what the sunset looks like
You'll be lucky if you don't lose your eyes
"To Hell with that", she said, "I'll look deep and hard It's what my God gave me these eyes for"I'll look just as hard as her
Hell even harder, I'll join her as a miner
Digging deep till I'm blind
Without eyes still seeing but always singing out
