Expensive (feat. Daye Jack)

Tori Kelly

Let me tell ya baby
Don't need no diamonds on my body
Got no green in my eyes
(Can you feel me, yeah)
Get a brand new Bentley
I'll tell you now it makes no difference
Just want all of your time (yeah yeah yeah)'Cause you kiss me like I'm dreamin'
Like I'm one in a million
And I think it's time your figured it out, oooh
'Cause I know I got that somethin'
And it won't cost you nothin'
I already feel expensive enough
Turn that gold into dust
That's what matters, matters
Oh yeah yeah yeahMoney don't buy love
Money don't buy love
(No your money don't buy love)
(No your money don't buy love)
(No your money don't buy love)
Your money don't buy loveSo call me crazy
No I'm not starin' at your pocket
I ain't diggin' for dimes
(Can you feel me, yeah)
The fact is baby
We've all been taught to chase that dollar
But that's not on my mind (yeah yeah yeah)'Cause you kiss me like I'm dreamin'
Like I'm one in a million
And I think it's time your figured it out, oooh
'Cause I know I got that somethin'
And it won't cost you nothin'
I already feel expensive enough
Turn that gold into dust
That's what matters, matters
Oh yeah yeah yeahMoney don't buy love
Money don't buy love
(No your money don't buy love)
(No your money don't buy love)
(No your money don't buy love)
Your money don't buy love(No your money don't buy love)

(No your money don't buy love)
(No your money don't buy love)
Your money don't buy loveBut if I had a hundred thousand dollars
If I'm a king, power falling in my pocket
Get a diamond ring for my girl and her mama
Wonder why she still ain't callin'
Do you love me? I'm a man with a problem
Never found love, so went out and I bought it
And my two cents makes sense, I'm talkin'
Hey, girl, I'm here, no wallet
Whatever happened to the love in the moment
A hug and I hold you, a hand to your shoulder, man, to feel closer
Runnin' to the date, number nine, no soda
Grab a milkshake, we'll be dancing, it's over
Grab a milkshake, we'll be dancing, it's over
Grab a milkshake, we'll be dancing, it's overHeeey yeah yeah
I feel expensive enough
No your money don't buy love
No your money don't buy love
No your money don't buy love
Your money don't buy love'Cause you kiss me like I'm dreamin'
Like I'm one in a million
And I think it's time your figured it out, oooh
'Cause I know I got that somethin'
And it won't cost you nothin'
I already feel expensive enough
Turn that gold into dust
That's what matters, matters
Oh yeah yeah yeahMoney don't buy love
