Eyes of a Fool

Jon Secada

What did I see? What made me believe?
How could I believe that you really loved me?
What did I feel that moment?
I handed my world to youAnd I, I was captured by your lies
Lost in all your promises of love
Blind, I was blinded by your smile
With all you said I thought I was the oneBut the eyes of a fool
Never can see, never can see
I looked at you
Through the eyes of a fool
The eyes of a foolHow could I know, you didn't care?
How did I see? What just wasn't there?
So precious the dreams, I thought we shared
Dreams that will never beAnd time, only time will show the truth
The truth I couldn't see behind your lies
And you, you showed me love can be so cruel
I thought I saw forever in your eyesBut the eyes of a fool
Never can see, never can see
I looked at you
Through the eyes of a fool
Eyes of a foolTaken by you, yeah
Baby, you know, you know
You know you love me babyBut the eyes of a fool
Never can see, never can see
And I looked at you
Through the eyes of a fool
Through the eyes of a fool, yeah
