New Shadow

Cripper

Reality, reflection
I'm the fire-feeding
The world around is built by us
And us is more than all of you and meIn the end
Nothing is true
What has been and is, will be
In a different light
From now on
New shadowShadow, awake in the sunlight
Shadow, alive like an animal
Shadow-alike run up the wall
My shadow-allied
A shadow like mineShadow, awake in the sunlight
Shadow, alive like an animal
Shadow-alike run up the wall
My shadow-allied
A shadow like mineOpen eyes
Seeing things in a different lightWhile I'm here
And on my own
Nothing speaks
Nothing means
My words for you
I say again
All my words forYou make it whole
You give sense
The making stretches
To the end
Another focus
Different view
Support all angles
This is realShadow, awake in the sunlight
Shadow, alive like an animal
Shadow-alike run up the wall
My shadow-allied
A shadow like mineShadow, awake in the sunlight
Shadow, alive like an animal
Shadow-alike run up the wall
My shadow-allied
A shadow like mineWith all my strength and all my senses

Ease my mind, embrace the painThese words I own are yours right now
Each letter, word, each phrasing, soundSo level up the inspiration
Make me feel the humming flowA symbol for the peace of mind
A symbol for my shadow-allied
